TUESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 15.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS. It is shiftless to lounge about stores and groceries when it is possible to be doing something at home. It is short eighted policy to elect to the township and county offices the men who cannot support themselves in the ordinary pursuite of life. It is also very costly.

Mr. Hearstp's steam yacht Vamoose started Restores the sense of out Saturday to beat the steamer Mary Powell, said to be the swifteet boat on the Hudson river. The Vamouse leitered by her aide, then burst sheed, darted from side to side in front of the big steamboat and finally circled clean around her.

A mandament from Cardinal Tascherean was read in the Catholic churches of Que-bec on Sunday condemning the faith mani-fested by the French Canadian inhabitants in the alleged corative powers of the 8-yeareld girl now in Quebec, who is claimed to be endowed with supernatural gifts. The mandament says it is not only ridiculous but mandament says it is not only ridiculous but also a sin on the part of the girl and on the part of the believers. It will be hard for the Cardinal to extirpate the belief that the people have in the girl's powers as she is said to have effected some remarkable cures to Cardinal. in Quebec. Among them is that of a cancer which was eating the life out of a woman who, it is said, is now in a fair way of recovery.
